Vote NO on the Redistricting Amendment — Keep Virginia's Fair Maps

OPENING SCRIPT (read word for word or make it your own)

“Hi, my name is [NAME] and I’m a volunteer with RepublicanAdvocates.com. I’m reaching out because there’s a critical vote on April 21st — and early voting is happening RIGHT NOW. This vote could let politicians gerrymander Virginia’s congressional districts. Can I share a quick fact with you?”

KEY TALKING POINTS

01 The Ballot Wording Is Designed to Trick You

The ballot says this “restores fairness” — but Virginia’s maps are ALREADY fair, graded ‘A’ by the Princeton Gerrymandering Project. A YES vote destroys fairness. A NO vote protects it.

02 Virginians Already Voted to End Gerrymandering

In 2020, 66% of Virginia voters — over 2.7 million people — created an independent redistricting commission. This referendum ignores that landslide mandate.

03 This Creates a 10-to-1 Democratic Gerrymander

The new maps flip 4 Republican districts to Democrat, giving one party 10 of 11 seats — in a state where nearly half of voters chose a Republican president in 2024.

04 It’s Unconstitutional

AG Jason Miyares declared it unconstitutional. It violates the state constitution on timing, public notice, and the single-subject rule. Lawsuits have been filed.

05 Our Leaders Are United Against It

Gov. Youngkin, Lt. Gov. Earle-Sears, AG Miyares, Virginians for Fair Maps, and The Family Foundation of Virginia all say: VOTE NO.

06 The Ask — Don’t Wait, Vote Early!

Early voting is happening RIGHT NOW. Will you vote NO before April 21? And share this with three people you know? Every vote counts.

HANDLING OBJECTIONS

“I haven’t heard about this.”

That’s exactly why we’re here. The election is April 21 and early voting is open NOW. Please vote NO before it’s too late.

“Isn’t gerrymandering already a problem?”

It was — and Virginians fixed it in 2020. The commission’s maps are graded ‘A’ for fairness. This amendment throws that fix away.

“Maybe the maps should be redrawn?”

The current maps ARE fair. The proposed maps create a 10-to-1 Democratic advantage in a state that’s nearly split 50/50. That’s a gerrymander, not fairness.

“It says it’s only temporary.”

Politicians never give up power once seized. ‘Temporary’ is how every permanent power grab starts. Don’t be fooled.

“I don’t usually vote in special elections.”

Early voting is open RIGHT NOW — you can vote today. Off-cycle elections are decided by a small number of voters. Your vote carries enormous weight.

“I support Democrats.”

This is about fair process, not party. Even if you lean Democrat, a rigged system hurts everyone when the other party eventually takes power.
